Fiktive Textgrundlage

Fictional notes: On Monday Maya writes, “I am waiting.” Noah reports on Tuesday. Owen’s Monday note says, “The rehearsal will start at four tomorrow.” An explicitly updated Tuesday notice announces a five o’clock start. Maya asks where the rehearsal is; no answer about the rehearsal room is supplied. None of these notes records a completed rehearsal.

1. Maya says on Monday, “I am waiting.” Noah reports it on Tuesday using the selected backshift pattern. Which fits?

- ☐ A Maya asked whether the waiting had finished.
- ☐ B Maya confirmed that everyone had already left.
- ☐ C Maya said that she was waiting.
- ☐ D Maya said that Noah is waiting now.

2. Owen said, “The rehearsal will start at four.” Choose the report using the selected will→would backshift.

Which rehearsal time should Noah pass on?

It is Tuesday at lunchtime. You are Noah. Liv has missed the two notices and needs to know when to arrive and where to go.

A · Maya's Monday message

A1 On Monday, Maya writes, "I am waiting outside the library now."

A2 On Tuesday, Noah reports Maya's earlier statement from another room.

A3 No independent observation or actual waiting duration is supplied.

B · The earlier plan and the updated notice

B1 On Monday, Owen writes, "The rehearsal will start at four tomorrow."

B2 An explicitly updated Tuesday notice says, "Today's rehearsal starts at five."

B3 Neither note records that the rehearsal actually took place.

C · Maya's question

C1 On Monday, Maya asks, "Where is the rehearsal?"

C3 The supplied exchange contains no answer about the room.

Write a short message to Liv in English. Name the source of the earlier plan and the updated time. State which time Liv should use and on which day. Say what is still unknown about the room and suggest how Liv can check it. Add a reported sentence about what Maya said or asked.

Vertiefung Check whether "tomorrow", "today" and "now" would still refer to the right time if Liv read your report later.

Erste Fassung

Überarbeitete Fassung und kurze Erklärung

Improve one sentence so Liv can tell who said it, which day it refers to, or whether it is confirmed. Write the improved version in the second field and say briefly what you changed.

> Pass on the eco-club trip update
>
> It is Friday morning. You are sending Tariq a brief message before he leaves for the eco-club trip.
>
> D · The two meeting notes
>
> D1 On Wednesday, Imani wrote, “We will meet at the west gate on Friday at eight.”
>
> D2 On Thursday, the office posted an update: “Tomorrow, meet at the main entrance at 8:15.”
>
> E · Finn asks about a guest
>
> E1 On Thursday, Finn asked, “Can a friend join us?”
>
> E2 The update does not answer Finn’s question.

Write to Tariq in English. Report the earlier plan and the updated meeting place and time. Make clear which day “tomorrow” meant in the office notice. Report Finn’s question and say what Tariq should check before bringing anyone.

Vertiefung Use a clear day in the report. An instruction in a notice does not say that anyone has already arrived or that guests have permission.
